

When I Must Leave You

When I must leave you for a little while,
Please do not grieve and shed wild tears,
And hug your sorrow to you through the years.

But start out bravely with a gallant smile;
And for my sake and in my name live on and do all things the same, feed not your loneliness
on empty days,
But fill each waking hour
in useful ways.

Reach out your hand in comfort and cheer,
And I in turn will comfort you and hold you near.
And never, never be afraid to die, for I am waiting for you in the sky.

Your presence at the visitation and service communicates that you care. This gesture is of immeasurable value to the family and speaks significantly about the life we commemorate.
